ASK RETURN FOR 2 YEARS ON RAILROADS

5 1/2 Per Cent Guarantee is Agreement Reached by the Conferees

CUMMINS' STATEMENT

Says After 2-Year Term Commerce Body To Fix the Rates

WASHINGTON—A return of 5 1/2 per cent on the aggregate value of the railroads would be guaranteed by the government for a period of two years under an agreement reached today by the Senate and House conferees on the railroad bill. In announcing the agreement today, Chairman Cummins of the senate committee, said the re-written section provided that after the two year period the percentage of return would be fixed by the interstate commerce commission which would be authorized to fix rates so as to yield that return.

With the agreement on this section the conferees completed their work on the bill and Senator Cummins said their report probably would be ready for congress by February 16. Leaders hope to complete final enactment of the bill before the railroads are returned to private control on March 1.

LOCAL LEGION NOT POLITICAL

Madison's American Legion post last night launched its program of entertainment for ex-soldiers and sailors who are suffering from after effects of their service. James L. Clarke, who heads the entertainment committee, has a series of stunts now under way, the first of which was a moving picture program given last night by G. M. Householder of the state department of agriculture at the Dane County tuberculosis sanitarium, where fourteen boys who saw service are under treatment, and who appreciated this recognition from their former "buddies."

George F. O'Connell, post commander, summed up the view point of the Madison Legion post when he told these men "that the William Cairns Post was organized for service—not propaganda; not to trace the records of prize fighters, nor to become a political tool, but rather to put an organized support back of every case of trouble that might befall a man who saw service in the late war and to co-operate with all agencies which have been established to carry on such work."

ALEXANDER TO BOSS PHILIPP CAR COMPANY

Walter Alexander, for the past year mechanical engineer at the Highway Commission handling the federal equipment, has presented his resignation to take effect March first and will become vice president and general manager of the Union Refrigerator and Transit Co. This company is owned by Gov. Philipp. Mr. Alexander was formerly connected with the mechanical department of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul road. He was appointed by Governor Philipp as a member of the State Railroad Commission but later resigned to again become associated with the St. Paul system. At the outbreak of the war he was appointed to a federal position in charge of handling motor trucks and at the conclusion of the war was appointed to a similar position under the State Highway Department.

STOCK MARKET CLOSES STRONG

NEW YORK—The week-end session of the stock market was attended by alternate periods of strength and heaviness, many substantial gains prevailing in the final dealings. Advances of 1 to 5 points at the outset again originated mainly from short covering, but a moderate reaction in foreign exchange afforded an excuse for the exercise of fresh pressure, speculative issues reversing their early course by 1 to 4 points. Buying later of high-priced motors, steels, equipments, oils and shippings more than restored most losses.

The closing was strong. Sales approximated 405,000 shares.

ALL DISCUSS EXCHANGE

LONDON, Feb. 7.—More editorial attention is attracted to the exchange situation than to the demand for the extradition of Germans accused of war crimes. Some newspapers say that the suspension of imports of cotton is "An excellent example which it may be hoped other traders will follow."

Elsewhere it is regarded as a dangerous remedy and fear is expressed that its cost will eventually fall on British consumers.

Some newspapers remark that there are many things imported from America that could be easily dispensed with temporarily, such as preserved fruits, vegetables, chocolates, golf balls and motor cars. The doctrine calling for increased production and universal economy is vehemently preached. The papers say that public and private expenditures if unchecked must lead to financial disaster.

BOSSHARD IN DELEGATE RACE

Former State Senator Otto Boshard of La Crosse is a republican candidate for delegate at large on the uninstruted ticket, it was announced at republican headquarters in Milwaukee Friday afternoon. Uninstruted candidates in the 8th district will be George B. Nelson of Stevens Point and Walter B. Heinemann of Wausau. F. J. Carr of Hudson has retired as a delegate candidate in the 10th district, leaving L. A. Baker of New Richmond the candidate in the west end of the district.

It was reported unofficially in Milwaukee Friday afternoon that the forces back of J. N. Tittmore for governor will run a complete list of uninstruted delegate candidates for the republican convention.

HOAN RENAMED BY THE SOCIALISTS

MILWAUKEE—Returns from the recent socialist referendum show that Mayor Daniel W. Hoan has been renominated by the party to make the race for mayor in the coming spring election. William Coleman has been picked to run for controller, and Alderman-at-Large Emil Seidel for city treasurer.

Atty. John C. Kleist was nominated for judge of circuit court. Carl Hampel was nominated for justice of the peace and William E. Spaeth for constable.

The Socialist campaign will be formally opened Sunday, March 7, when a massmeeting will be held in the Auditorium.

U. S. MARINES CROSS JAPS IN SIBERIA

Japanese Would Help Russian Officers Fleeing Bolsheviks

YANKS FOR NEUTRALITY

Revolutionists Enter Vladivostok as Government Forces Disperse

(By the Associated Press)
LONDON—American marines at Vladivostok intervened when Japanese soldiers attempted to prevent revolutionary troops from capturing Gen. Rozanoff, Russian Governor General, when the city was taken by the Reds. The message stated Gen. Rozanoff finally escaped and took refuge on a Japanese cruiser. The first revolutionists entered by stealth, seized the street railway and used the cars to carry them up the main street to the house occupied by Gen. Rozanoff. When they tried to surround the building the Japanese blocked the way, but the officer of an American marine detachment announced he would not permit interference. The Japanese then withdrew.

TOKIO — Russian officers who have been serving at Vladivostok under the command of Gen. Rozanoff, have arrived with their families on the southern coast of Japan.

They were on board two Russian warships which entered port early today and their arrival appears to indicate an exodus of Russians from the eastern part of Siberia.

SAYS NEWBERRY WAS INFORMED

(By the Associated Press)
GRAND RAPIDS — Mrs. Annabelle Hamilton one of the head stenographers in the Newberry campaign headquarters at Detroit testified today in the election conspiracy case.

Fashionably gowned, gloved, hatted and veiled, Mrs. Hamilton told about a cash box in the office vault of the Detroit campaign headquarters. She said she received dictation of letters written to Truman H. Newberry by B. Frank Emery and related that mail for Paul King, campaign manager was forwarded to the same postoffice box in New York to which mail for the senatorial candidate was addressed.

Mrs. Hamilton also related a conversation with Wm. J. Mickel of Oshkosh, Wis., the democratic defendant who is alleged to have been hired by the Newberry campaign to get a candidate on the democratic primary ticket in opposition to Henry Ford. She said Mickel told her he was going to "find a candidate who would have no show against Newberry if he had to run himself."

HIRSH VICE PRESIDENT OF HARDWARE DEALERS

Louis Hirsch of Madison, was elected vice president of the State Retail Hardware Dealers' association at the convention in Milwaukee Friday. A. C. Mason of Chippewa Falls was elected president.

FARMERS LOSE ON MILK PRICE

"The drop in price of milk from $3.85 to $3.50 a hundredweight at the Middleton condensary of the Valcidea company means that we are getting ten cents less than the price fixed by the Chicago Milk Producers' association for the Chicago district," according to Otto F. Toepfer "The Valcidea plant pays $3.50 for 4 percent milk, dropping five cents in price for each one-tenth of one percent drop in butter-fat. That brings 3.5 percent milk down to $3.25 and the Chicago district is $3.35, ten cents more."

"For some reason Middleton was not included in the Chicago district in the agreement, but Stoughton is. The drop will affect all the farmers here because the condensary gets all the milk. Creameries and cheese factories couldn't compete with the condensary. The butter market is somewhat wobbly now."

ASYLUM DEATH BRINGS TOLL IN FLU UP TO 27

Racine Patient Dies at Mendota; Situation is Controlled

Twenty-four hours have passed without a single death from influenza, according to reports from the General, St. Mary's and university hospitals. The number of new cases would also indicate that the epidemic has not only been checked but is on the wane. Only a few new cases were reported in university circles this morning, while up to 2 o'clock in the afternoon, the number totaled 14. Yesterday 24 new cases were reported, making, last night, altogether 276 cases in 223 homes. Placards are also being removed daily.

Mrs. Lena Schneider of Muscoda died early today at a local hospital of pneumonia. She was 60 years old. She is survived by three sons, George W. Schneider, of the Schneider Studio, Mifflin St., and Charles and Frank Schneider, also of this city. Two sisters live at Muscoda.

The funeral will be held Monday morning at 8:30 o'clock from St. James church. Burial will be made at Calvary.

Adolph Kroupa of Racine died Friday afternoon at the state hospital for the insane at Mendota, where he was an inmate. This brings the death from influenza up to 27. Kroupa's death was the first at the Mendota hospital, where the epidemic has stricken a score of patients. The situation there is well controlled, however, according to a statement by Dr. Frank I. Drake, superintendent.

Dr. Robert Olesen of the state board of health, Friday night, detailed reports from all sections of Wisconsin yesterday indicated that the epidemic had been halted by that it had not yet started on the decline.

Several new cases were reported to the board of health this morning. Yesterday's total 276 cases in 223 homes. Twenty-four of these were new ones.

There is a great shortage of nurses in the city, numbers of families being without any aid at all.

CITY CHURCHES CLOSE FOR "FLU"

A number of Madison churches are closing during the influenza epidemic, partly as a preventive measure, and partly because they cannot accommodate the entire congregation under the present seating regulation, by which only every second pew may be used.

The Bethel Lutheran church, Rev. O. J. U. Siljan pastor, has announced that all activities have been called off for Sunday. No service will be held at the First Unitarian church, Wisconsin Ave., Rev. A. E. Hayden of Chicago, pastor, until further notice.

Westminster church, West Lawn Ave., Wingra Park, will not have service until the flu ban has been lifted, according to an announcement by Rev. Karl Von Krug, pastor.

Luther Memorial church had no services last Sunday and the church will remain closed until after the influenza ban has been lifted. This was thought advisable owing to the fact that a large number of students attend the church, especially as the seating capacity is small.

Invites La Follette to Discuss Railroad Bills

Citizens' Co-operative League of La Crosse Wants to Hear Senator

LA CROSSE, Wis. — Senator R. M. La Follette, who is at the Mayo hospital in Rochester for treatment, has been invited by the Citizens' Co-operative League of La Crosse to address a mass meeting here to discuss the railroad bills pending before the conference committee in congress.

MRS. STEPHEN ALLEN

Mrs. Stephen Allen, 608 E. Johnson St., died early this morning of a complication of diseases, aged 32 years. She is survived by her husband, one son and a daughter.

The body was removed to the Schroeder funeral chapel from where it will be sent to Gary, Ind. for burial.

WILSON STILL ADAMANT ON THE TREATY

Writes Senator Hitchcock Letter; Against the Lodge Reservations

DEMOCRATS IN PLANS

President Against All But Interpretive Declarations

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON—President Wilson has written Senator Hitchcock approving the reservations to the treaty which the senator presented to the bi-partisan conference committee which recently failed to reach an agreement. The letter was written before the publication of Viscount Grey's letter.

It is understood that the president has approved the senator's course in the unofficial bi-partisan compromise negotiations then in progress. It was said there was no detailed discussion of these negotiations in today's conference and no formal decision whether the democratic would support the reservations agreed on by the bi-partisan committee. Senator Hitchcock said afterward that the course of the democrats in the senate next week would be shaped by the moves made by the republicans.

The democratic leader also declared there had been no change in the attitude of the democrats and that they remained as determined as ever not to accept the republican reservation to article ten without modification.

President Wilson's letter is understood to have been written in response to a memorandum from Senator Hitchcock outlining the course of democratic members of the bi-partisan committee.

After listening to the letter from President Wilson reaffirming his stand against any but interpretive reservations to the peace treaty, democratic senators decided in conference today to proceed with their previous plan to help bring the treaty up in the senate Monday.

The letter is understood to have expressed the president's willingness to accept any interpretive reservations that the democrats might frame but to have omitted discussion of any specific reservation proposals.

ROMAN HEILMAN MEMBER OF FIRM

Frank L. Gilbert and Emerson E. Gilbert & Co., attorneys at law today announced that they have associated with them as a partner, Roman A. Heilman, who has practiced law with them since he completed his law course at the university in 1913.

Mr. Heilman is the District Attorney.

Mr. Gilbert and Mr. E. A. have been associated in the practice of law since August, 1907. They formerly had offices at Main and Carroll streets but since August 1, 1918, have occupied the second floor of the Bank of Wisconsin Building.

The new firm will continue to occupy the same offices and will be known by the firm name of Gilbert, E. A. & Heilman.

N. D. VOTERS BAND TO FIGHT NON-PARTISANS

(By the Associated Press)
GRAND FORKS, N. D.—Campaign plans for the North Dakota Independent Voters' association were adopted at the state convention.

By the plan of campaign outlined and adopted, it is proposed to organize a force of at least 25,000 voters to dedicate their time in carrying on the campaign against the Non-partisan league.

It was proposed by the committee on campaign methods that the anti-Non-partisan league members of the republican and democratic state central committees be asked to appoint seven members each to confer with a like committee of seven members from the Independent Voters' association for the purpose of calling a state mass convention of all voters opposed to the league to nominate tickets.

MUSCODA MAN UP FOR FORGERY

Joseph Marcus Charged With Passing Bad Checks in the City

Joseph Marcus of Muscoda was arraigned in superior court this morning, charged with forging the signature of a brother to two checks, one for $25 given on January 31, to O'Connell and Meyer, the other for $20 to "Dad" Morgan. He pleaded not guilty.

Marcus is the son of a wealthy, retired merchant now living in Minneapolis, whose other sons own and operate a large chain of stores known as Marcus Bros. stores, one of them being in Muscoda.

This is not Joseph's first offense, but hitherto his relatives have always made good the checks. Previous to serving in the army, which he left last November, he forged his brothers' signatures several times. He is now in the county jail awaiting trial, $500 bail having been required.

RESIGNATION OF SECY. LANE IS ANNOUNCED

Head of Department of the Interior Quits the Cabinet

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON—Secretary Lane of the department of the interior has placed his resignation in the hands of President Wilson. It became known sometime ago that the secretary contemplated leaving the cabinet when it was convenient for the president to release him.

Secretary Lane's resignation is effective March 1.

HOG PRODUCTS DROP IN VALUE

CHICAGO—All grain and provisions have shrunk in value this week chiefly as a result of the European exchange flurry and tightness in domestic money rates. Compared with a week ago corn quotations this morning were 4c to 5c lower, oats off 5c to 6c, and provisions down 1 1/2c to 4c.

Before the financial strain became a dominating influence the corn market had an upward tendency, owing to reports that cultivated acreage would be smaller in 1920 as a consequence of the farmers' dissatisfaction with prices. At first, too, the collapse of foreign exchange was viewed with comparative indifference by corn traders, inasmuch as export business in corn has seldom attained important volume. Subsequent halting of European demand for oats and rye, however, had an immediate depressing effect on corn. Liquidation and short selling then took on large proportions, especially as at this juncture the railroads were ordered to use emergency measures to hurry the domestic crop movement. An additional bearish factor was the possibility that Canada would ship oats to the United States, duty paid.

Demoralization of exchange pulled down oats hard. There was particularly heavy selling from Winnipeg. Pork, lard and ribs suffered the steepest fall in a long time. European financial conditions were mainly responsible.

REGISTERED PACKAGE DISAPPEARS

Letter was sent from Madison to Chicago during Dec.

OFFICIALS HERE

Gov. Sleuths are here today investigating the Affair

That a registered letter containing $20,000 in bonds and sent from Madison to Chicago has disappeared is the statement prevalent here today.

It is said that the package disappeared about five weeks ago or during the middle of December.

Government officials were in the city today investigating the affair.

It is understood that the package was mailed here by the First National bank to Chicago, but was not received in Chicago.

MANY ABOARD BOAT RESCUED

(By the Associated Press)
NEW YORK—Thirty-two passengers and twenty-eight members of the crew of the steamship Princess Anne which stranded on a sandbar at Rockaway point Thursday night while bound from Norfolk, Va., to this city, were landed at the Battery by the police boat patrol shortly after 1 o'clock this afternoon. Forty-four members of the crew remained aboard the distressed vessel.

GAS COMPANY WANTS COMPLAINT DISMISSED

Answer to the complaint of the City of Racine was filed in circuit court this morning by the railroad commission and the Wisconsin Gas and Electric Co. The company admits that the railroad commission made an order fixing the gas rates to be charged by the company in Racine and elsewhere, thereby discontinuing former gas rates, but denies that this order increased the rate for gas 45 cents per thousand cubic feet, as apparently alleged in the complaint. The company therefore demands judgment dismissing the complaint.

Seattle Woman Thinks Mother May Be In Madison

Does anyone in Madison know Mrs. Harry Jones? If so, her daughter, Mrs. George Ross, 314 Second ave. north, Seattle, would like to hear from you, or her. The Capital Times is in receipt of a letter from Mrs. Ross, reading:

"I am writing this letter in hopes that you or your paper will be able to help me locate my mother, Mrs. Harry Jones. The last time I heard from her she was living in Madison, Wis. That was two years ago. Having no way to find her unless I come east myself, I thought of writing to see if you can advise me if it be best for me to advertise in your paper, or how to go about it. I have her picture."

The Madison directory does not contain the name of Mrs. Harry Jones.

ADMIRAL IN FAVOR OF FOREIGN HONOR

Looked With Favor On Honors Given by the British

DANIELS OPPOSED

Secretary Tells of Law Passed By Congress on the Subject

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON—After congress passed a law permitting American officers to accept decorations from foreign governments, President Wilson directed the state department to inform all European governments that the United States did not wish any awards made, Secretary Daniels disclosed today before the committee investigating naval awards.

Before the president acted, Mr. Daniels said, Rear Admiral Sims had been informed of the passage of the law and had accepted a decoration from the King of England and had authorized Admiral Rodman and Rear Admiral Strauss, directing the laying of the North Sea mine barrage, to accept decorations. Admiral Sims was informed by Secretary Daniels of the president's action, the Secretary continued, and he wrote asking whether he should return the medal to the King. Mr. Daniels said he replied that in view of the action taken, presumably before President Wilson's request reached the King, there was nothing that could be done and that, of course, the decorations already accepted could not be returned. He expressed the hope at the time, he said, that no other foreign decorations would be given.

Admiral Sims was in favor of foreign decorations for American naval officers, Mr. Daniels continued, holding that they would help the morale. Mr. Daniels told the committee he took an entirely different view and had never desired American officers to accept any decorations from foreign governments.

The secretary said Admiral Rodman and Strauss were reluctant to accept decorations from the King of England and he read letters from them on the subject. Admiral Rodman stated that he "very reluctantly" decided to accept for no other reason than that he did not wish to give offense to the British government which holds such matters in high esteem."

Admiral Strauss followed the same course taken by Admiral Rodman, Mr. Daniels said, and before accepting the decoration he told the British naval authorities that he could not accept it without the authority of his government. The naval officials told Admiral Strauss that the decorations for him and the other American naval officers "would not be conferred in the regular manner."

"Every word that I have said of Admiral Sims' ability and brilliancy in certain lines is true," said Mr. Daniels, "but if I had known what has developed since, I should not have recommended that he be made an admiral for life."

"I wish to give some reasons why I would not make that recommendation now. One reason is a statement made recently in the House of Representatives by Rep. Byrnes, in which he said that while in Paris in October, 1918, he talked to Admiral Sims and Sims praised the British army highly, declared that an armistice would have to be signed because Pershing had been unable to break through the German line due to a breakdown in the American service of transportation and greatly minimized the service of the American navy in the war. Afterward, Rep. Byrnes said, he visited Pershing's headquarters and learned that Sims' charge was unfounded. A few days afterward, Rep. Byrnes reported Admiral Sims' remarks to a high American official without saying who made them and received the reply, 'that is pure British propaganda' and there is only one officer in the American service who could have said such things, and he is Rear Admiral Wm. S. Sims."

SUIT OF MRS. DOWNER IS DISMISSED BY JUDGE

The case of Mrs. Fred Donner, a nurse of Madison, who brought suit against John Mohr for $95, the balance of a $1,000 note due her for services rendered Mrs. Mohr and her children, was dismissed in superior court this morning by Judge Ross.

So before you swoon at the price sold the value for that's what you are going to have when your money is gone—and if it isn't there WHERE ARE YOU?

Direct Foreign Trade With Milwaukee Plan

Foreign Securities Company Incorporated to Promote Such Ends

Arrangements for carrying on foreign trade from Milwaukee are part of the plans to "make Milwaukee a seaport." The Foreign Securities Company, capitalized at $100,000, filed articles of incorporation Friday setting forth its purpose as promoting foreign exchange. Incorporators are R. J. Mills, Walter M. Mayer and Ralph W. Clayton.

Three papers filed yesterday had to do with million dollar concerns or better. The Milwaukee Rolling Mills Co., $1,500,000, was incorporated. The La Crosse Rubber Mills went from $1,000,000 to $1,500,000, and the Yawkey-Bissell Lumber Co., of Wausau from $500,000 to $1,000,000.

Other incorporations were the Sixth Street Realty Co., Milwaukee, $15,000; A. R. Pieper Co., Milwaukee, 500 shares of non-par stock.

Lloyd George Favors Modification of the List; French Are Skeptical

ASK 12 ADMIRALS

Complete List of Men Demanded By Allies Arrives at Berlin

(By the Associated Press)

LONDON—Premier Lloyd George is reported to favor a substantial modification of the list of German naval officers whom the allies demand. The Westminster Gazette says today. Baron von Lersner has made a formal report to the Berlin foreign office. The allies are reported to have told him that after proceedings against the Germans named in the present list had begun, a further list of those required for trial would be presented.

12 Admirals Demanded

BERLIN—Twelve admirals, two high seas fleet commanders, thirty U-boat captains and numerous other in the German navy are included in the list whose extradition is demanded.

Admiral Von Mueller, chief of the secret naval cabinet, was permanently attached to great headquarters where he was counted among the most confidential advisers. In addition the allies demand Admiral Von Tirpitz, Admiral Von Capelle and Admiral Von Trotha.

Admiralty officers who will discuss the list charge that the wholesale demand for German naval officers indicates the entente's desire to "permanently paralyze German naval aspirations" and the presence of names like those of Admiral Von Tirpitz and Admiral Von Mueller is ridiculous.

"Admiral Von Tirpitz," said an official today, "was never active at the front during the war and never even participated to the extent of commanding a gunboat."

He declared that Admiral Von Mueller was an executive official who merely represented admiralty at great headquarters.

Admiral Von Schroeder commanded the Flanders naval base and it was under his jurisdiction that Captain Fryatt, later executed, was captured.

Out of a total of 500 German submarine commanders the entente powers have called for only 30. These comprise all the prominent U-boat operators. The admiralty admitted losing 200 U-boats and it is estimated 160 were left at the close of the conflict.

Commander Becker is an aviator who completed a sensational Zeppelin flight to the German colony in the heart of Africa. Officials are unable to account for the absence of the names of Zeppelin commanders who bombed London.

Captain Neger, whose name was included in the list was commander of the German commerce raider Wolf.

Few parliamentary leaders in Berlin today would venture any opinion as to what action would be taken but were inclined to be skeptical in regard to the seriousness of the allied demand for extradition. They were inclined to believe it to be the prelude to a demand for staggering indemnity.

The Morgenpost notes the absence from the list of many names that might have been expected. It points out as an instance that the name of Captain Sauerwein, commonly charged with having been identified with the execution of Miss Edith Cavell does not appear.

The Pan-American Deutsche Zeitung calls upon all holders of the Iron cross to wear them as a mute protest against this miserable demand, but with flaming eyes and in the proud consciousness that we were victors in hundreds of battles.

Delivered At Berlin
PARIS—Delivery to the German government by the French charge in Berlin of the list of German naval officers whose extradition is demanded is the proper course to pursue in the existing circumstances, the council of ambassadors decided today. Its action was made known through an official communication which read:

"The council of ambassadors is unanimously of the opinion that the list should be delivered to the German government by the charge d'affaires of France in the name of the allied powers as soon as possible."

It is understood that in the discussion of the question today the ambassadors took the view that the entire question now is up to Germany and that further steps by the allies should await the action of the German authorities.

French Government Gets Confidence Note

PARIS—Confidence in the government was voted by the chamber of Deputies today. The vote was 513 to 68.

Wealth, Not Life, Protected By Present System, Babson Admits

The Organs of Big Business Confess That They Got Point of Bolshevik When Eyes Were Opened to Inequalities

NEW YORK—Roger Babson, the little tin god of information for the Big Wall St. Bankers is unconsciously exposing the defects of the system he and his friends are backing. In a recent pamphlet entitled "What Bothers Me," he does more for those who object to the present inequalities than 100 propagandists could do.

After speaking of the Boston policemen's strike, which he calls "a great mistake," Babson says: "However, my purpose is not to discuss the Boston police strike, but rather a certain phase of the situation which appears to me every time I go into Boston. Perhaps I can best illustrate what I have in mind by telling of a trip to town yesterday."

Troops Protect Wealth
"I went into one of the largest banks with some securities. Marching up and down in front of the bank were soldiers with rifles. Not only that but a negro porter sat in a chair within the door with a belt of cartridges carelessly put around his neck like a string of beads. Everything was guarded as if this were the most sacred spot in America."

"After leaving the bank I visited a Washington St. jewelry store, where I exchanged an electric lamp. Here the same procedure was going on, though on a smaller scale. Guards were walking back and forth with guns on their shoulders and belts full of cartridges. Mind you, I don't criticize these soldiers. They were simply obeying the law."

Saw Family Evicted
"On my way home I went out through Cambridge. On the corner of a street I saw a group of people. It was necessary to slow up my automobile, owing to the congestion. I inquired the cause of the trouble, and learned that a poor family was being evicted from its home. The landlord has put up the price of the rent, and they were put on the street—a mother with several children and an old grandmother. It was a sad sight."

"Upon reaching my office I took up the day's mail. The first letter was one from a woman inquiring of me the whereabouts of a certain man who had got her daughter into trouble. I will not give the particulars as she gave them to me in her letter, but they were harrowing."

How Troops to Protect Poor
"As I sat in my office last evening the vision of the Bolshevik came to my mind. For the first time I momentarily caught his point of view—that the government is organized to protect property rather than people. No soldiers were in Cambridge to protect that poor family which was being evicted from its home. No soldiers were ready to protect that girl or mother from being ruined by a well known man. But when a bank or store is threatened, the entire state guard of 7,000 men is immediately called."

"This letter is not written in the spirit of criticism. I realize that there can be no blame on the soldiers or the officials. They are simply carrying out the wishes of us who make the laws. The fact, nevertheless, remains that under the law, as set up today, property and capital receive greater respect than health and happiness."

"Must Curb Bolshevism"
"I believe that this fact is the cause of the radical movements of today, and that only as we rectify the situation can Bolshevism be curbed. In any city where a telephone call from a poor widow's home will receive the same attention as the telephone call from a prominent jewelry store, there will be no growth of Bolshevism. Let us not criticize those who are protecting property, but let us get behind those who are interested in making human life healthier, happier and more productive."

WHITTET RAPS LEAGUE AND NATION WASTE

Would Investigate Increased War Dept. Budget, Explains H. C. L. Address

WHITEWATER, Wis.—That the war department for the next year is asking eight times the amount expended by the same department in the year 1916, the year in which the armed forces assembled on the Mexican border, and that this unusual situation is presented despite the statement to the contrary that future war is to be impossible, were statements of Lawrence C. Whittet, in addressing the Rod and Gun club Friday evening. Mr. Whittet paid tribute to the progress made by Wisconsin along economic lines. He took a stand against President Wilson on the league of nations, declaring that this country cannot become responsible for all wars in Europe.

"Upon the question," said Mr. Whittet, "of the League of Nations which President Wilson told us, in the early part of 1918, just prior to his departure for Europe the last time, would be so closely interwoven with the peace treaty that it would be impossible to unscramble it, I am of the firm opinion that the League of Nations as presented to the Senate by the President should be Americanized, in other words that the so-called Lodge Amendments and Compromise Amendments, which will safeguard the interests of the United States. We who have favored a League of Nations have done so because we believe a league of this character would tend to make future wars impossible. However, I cannot believe that our people wish to become sponsors for all the quarrels that may take place either in Europe or elsewhere. Nations, like individuals, are selfish and this spirit has been altogether too manifest in the adjustment of the present peace terms. Congress should not delegate to any other body or power the constitutional right to declare, or engage this country in war."

"The War Department for next year asks eight times as much as was expended by the same department in 1916, the year in which the entire armed force, including the National Guard units, of the United States, were assembled on the Mexican border."

"Another figure: The year before the United States declared war, the total cost of the operation of the federal government was $1,072,894,000. For next year the request of the War Department alone is greater than the total expenditures for the government for the year 1916. And this situation despite the statement to the contrary that future war is impossible."

"A few days ago I noticed a press dispatch to the effect that the Federal Government has been defrauded out of hundreds of thousands of dollars in the ship-building contracts on the Pacific Coast. To my mind this is a traitorism in its most violent form. Any man or set of men who will deliberately defraud the government in time of war, jeopardizing the lives of their fellowmen, either through failure to furnish supplies of guaranteed standard, or by more direct methods of fraud, should be summarily dealt with as a traitor.

"The soldier, who by reason of the excessive tax upon his physical energies, sleeps at his post while on guard duty most oftentimes face the firing squad. How much worse is the offense of the contractor who steals from his government. The efficiency of the soldier on the field is decreased in proportion to the fraud perpetrated by the contractor."

"One of the great questions of common interest is that of the 'High Cost of Living.' Columns and columns of newspaper space have been devoted to this subject. Despite all that has been said or done costs have been steadily mounting upward. The solution of the problem lies largely in a greater increase of production, combined on the part of the consumer, with the purchase of only those articles which are necessary."

PACKING CO. HEAD PLEASED WITH PROGRESS

"Things are going badly at the Madison plant," said Oscar G. Mayor, president of Oscar Mayor & Co., Saturday just before he returned to Chicago after an inspection of the local plant. "We have a fine class of men and for that reason the organization has progressed much faster than I had expected. The plant is working up to capacity, handling 600 to 700 hogs, 50 cattle and 100 calves a day. The market is improving right along."

The Mayor company took the plant over from the Farmers' Co-operative Packing Co.

DATES FOR PAYMENT OF WATER RENT SET

Water rentals will have to be paid between July 1 and 20, or between Jan. 1 and 20 to avoid payment of the 10 per cent collection penalty hereafter, and water will be turned off at the end of the month if the rental is not paid, according to the revised section No. 5 of the regulations of the board of water commissioners as changed by resolutions at the regular meeting of the board Friday evening.

J. C. Schubert, J. C. White, C. W. Constantine, Ald. John Stock, Mayor George C. Sayle, Supt. L. A. Smith, and Sec. P. T. Hayes were present at the session. Routine business was transacted.

A charge of one dollar will be added to the bill for again turning on the water.

IRISH NOT GREATLY PLEASED BY LLOYD GEORGE'S PROPOSAL

Both Irish factions are reported as greatly displeased with Premier Lloyd George's proposal to the British house of commons that Ireland be divided into two states and each state be given home rule, with a parliament of its own. According to his plan, the English parliament would have only a general supervision over Irish affairs. The two states would be on the model of those of the United States.

STATE HELP BOLSHIEVIKI IN CHECKING NEW ADVANCE BOVINE PLAGUE

LONDON — Bolshevik forces are advancing along the shore of the Black Sea, 20 miles northeast of Odessa, according to a soviet government statement. In the Caucasian region, the statement says, Red troops have occupied Blakodanoe, 50 miles east of Stavropol.

Testing of Herds Begun in Green County Under New Law

In accordance with the provisions of the law passed by the last legislature, the veterinary division of the state department of agriculture has begun testing all the herds in one cheese factory district in Green county with a view to checking bovine tuberculosis. Other districts are expected to follow this practice.

C. P. Norwood, head of the department of agriculture, says that while it is perfectly proper to emphasize first the menace to human life which bovine tuberculosis offers in Wisconsin, yet the actual money loss to farmers should not be overlooked.

Yale Freshmen Are Intelligent, Tests Reveal

NEW HAVEN, Conn. — Psychological intelligence tests given the Yale freshmen class show that 92.2 per cent of the class received A or B grades, denoting intelligence above the average, it was announced today.

Comparison of these tests with similar ones given in the army show, according to an analysis made at Yale, that Yale freshmen are "a highly selected group and rate higher as a group than a large sampling of army officers."

The reports point out that 100 per cent of the freshmen exceeded the median score reached by drafted men. 84 per cent exceeded the score of high school seniors; 69 per cent bettered the freshmen of another university and 50 per cent exceeded the median score of seniors at that other university.

TO PREVENT THE DISSEMINATION OF TUBERCULOSIS TO HOGS, CALVES, AND HERDS FROM CREAMERY AND CHEESE FACTORIES, THE LEGISLATURE OF 1917 PASSED A LAW REQUIRING THAT ALL OF THE MILK AND BUTTERMILK FROM CREAMERIES AND CHEESE FACTORIES SHALL BE PASTEURIZED.

The administration of this law was placed with the state department of agriculture. In interpreting this law the department greatly favors the pasteurization of the incoming products rather than the outgoing by-products, as this not only protects the hogs and calves but also people who consume primary products of factories. The legislature of 1919 provided an alternative to the creameries whereby, in place of pasteurizing, the patrons of dairy creamery and cheese factories are permitted to test their cattle. In carrying out this provision all of the patrons must petition the department of agriculture to come in and test all of their cattle six months of age belonging to the patrons of the creamery. The state will bear one-half of the expense if the total number of cattle does not exceed 160. If, however, two factories join or the total number of cattle numbers 300 or more the entire cost will be borne by the state. This alternative is of great interest to the creamery and cheese factory patrons of the state.

Alexander Hume Ford
 Alexander Hume Ford, secretary of the Pan-Pacific union, has arrived in Washington from Hawaii to offer President Wilson "a job." Ford wants Wilson, whom he leaves the White House, to become president of the Pan-Pacific union and live in Hawaii, described by Ford as "a land where there is no race prejudice and where, for twelve years, the representatives of the nations about the Pacific ocean have been meeting to plan co-operative work that will bring a league of nations comprising all of these about the Pacific."

BIG RAILROAD WALKOUT SEEN

DETROIT—The general chairman of the maintenance of way employees and shop laborers in conference here Friday, unanimously approved the proposal to call a nation-wide strike if necessary to enforce demands for wage increases, and sent word to Director General Hines that action would be deferred seven days pending the outcome of the Washington conference.

The vote was taken after Allen E. Barker, grand president, advised the conference that representatives of the union at Washington reported they saw little chance of agreement with the railroad administration.

She will work under the national board in the education.

Asthma Wouldn't Let Him Lie Down

Hasn't had a sign of trouble now for over 9 months.

"A year ago I had asthma so bad my friends thought I would never get over it. I had doctored for a long time without results. I had not been in bed for 3 weeks. I could not sit up straight in a chair. Then I heard of Milk Emulsion and started using it. It was only two days later that I could go to bed and sleep soundly. After taking eight bottles (44 worth) I found myself completely cured. It is over 9 months now since I quit taking Milk Emulsion, and I haven't had a symptom of asthma since."—Geo. W. Baker, E. D. J. Latrobe, Pa.

Why shouldn't Milk Emulsion help you? It has worked wonders for others. It costs nothing to try.

Milk Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and purgatives. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milk Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whom sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repelling the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon-like relish.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milk Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 50c and $1.00 per bottle. The Milk Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere. Guaranteed by the Lucky Pharmacy, Inc.—Adv.

Miss Bagley left today for Elgin, Ill., to begin her new work. Later she will go to Rockford, and after that to whatever cities the board may send her. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Bagley, Morris court.

NO EXPECTORATING ON WALKS DECLARES CHIEF

Chief of Police Shaughnessy has received a number of complaints in regard to men expectorating on the sidewalks of the city. There is an ordinance on the city books which forbids this practice, and offenders are liable to a fine. This fine will be rigidly enforced, according to the chief, especially during the "flu" epidemic.

Change of Front

PARIS — Astonishment has been caused in French circles by a change of attitude on the part of the British government regarding the extradition of Germans.

While it was understood that Great Britain was the most insistent of all powers in demanding the trial of former Emperor William and other prominent Germans, information has been received that the British are now showing a tendency to leave the initiative to others.

It was said yesterday that Premier Lloyd George objected only to the form of the covering note, but Baron Birkenhead, lord chancellor of England, is understood to have made it clear the British government favored a radical modification of the list in order that an agreement with Germany might be reached.

TO THE WIFE OF
ONE WHO DRINKS

If this should reach the eyes of a wife, mother or friend of some good man who drinks liquor to excess and cannot stop, let her write to Edw. J. Woods, Dist. Station P, New York, N. Y., for confidential information which should lead to a complete, joy-bringing victory over the drink habit. Show others this advertisement.

GLASSES AS A LAST RESORT

Pride causes too many people to ignore the help of glasses until they are absolutely compelled to get them. This is a mistaken view to take and no well informed person will look at the subject in that light. We cannot too strongly urge people who need glasses to get them at once. We hold a State Certificate and guarantee all work.

LIFE WAS A MISERY TO HER

Says this Woman Until Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Carrollton, Ky. — "I suffered almost two years with female weakness. I could not walk any distance, ride or take any exercise at all without resting. If I swept the floor or did any kind of work it would bring my sickness on. I was weak and languid, had no energy, and life was a misery to me. I was under the care of a good physician for several months and tried other remedies. I had read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it. After taking twelve bottles I found myself much improved and I took six more. I have never had any more trouble in that respect since. I have done all kinds of work and at present am an attendant at a State Hospital and am feeling fine. I have recommended your Vegetable Compound to dozens of my friends and shall always recommend it."

FIRST WAR VICTIM VISITING CAPITAL

Miss Margaret Bell Saunders.

Miss Margaret Bell Saunders, said to be the first English speaking woman wounded in the world war, has been the guest of Bishop Alfred Harding of Washington. She was under fire for two years during the war.

"OH! HOW THIS COLD HANGS ON!"

Give Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey a chance to help you. Its ingredients are sure to promote speedy and comforting relief from inflammation, phlegm congestion, hoarseness, gritty cough, asthma, bronchitis, hoarseness. While Nature destroys the infectious germs, Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey heals and comforts. And what widespread, ever-increasing popularity it enjoys! Safe, antiseptic, parents give it to their children as freely as they themselves use it. It is non-narcotic and dangerous to neglect a cough or cold. Using Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey is showing good judgment. 30c, 60c, $1.20.

Is Your Child's Liver Inactive? That means constipation, skin eruptions, nervousness, irritability, and the system generally is out of balance. Do not delay. Get Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. It is safe, reliable, and effective. All children should have it. 30c, 60c, $1.20.

Grand Ensemble of Bare Legs Stirs Natives In Hectic Show At Fuller

Fanchion-Marco Revue is Lurid Affair, Whirlwind Dancing is Feature; Dramatic News in Coming Week

A GRAND ensemble, quite unabashed, of bare legs; a woody jamboree of hysterical jazz; considerable dialogue that would not be appropriate at a ladies aid society and a carnival of color and dress featured the Fanchion and Marco Revue at the Fuller last night. It was a fast one for this old burg and we suspect that some of our staid citizens in attendance haven't caught their breath yet. And then it was announced that further opportunity to see this hectic production would be extended over into the decorous Sabbath, matinee and evening. The management certainly put their wares out where everybody could see them. The good looking corpsees were not allowed to keep to the stage with their bare shanks and underecked legs but a runway out into the parquet was part of the show's accoutrement upon which these bold nymphs disported. All of which was great stuff for the pop-eyed array of students present. The crash of the jazz and the attractions on the runway, however, were supposed to be incidental to the real stars of the evening, Fanchion and Marco. This pair of whirlwind dancers equal anything in the dancing line that has been seen in Madison in many a day. Fanchion was graceful in her every move and Marco was a fit partner for this wonderful dancer.

Much of the hoakum of the evening was furnished by Nelson and Chain, who have been seen here at the Orpheum. Do you remember "Jennie Dear"? That's them. They had much of their vaudeville act incorporated in last night's production and it went great.

Arthur West as a black face comedian also added much to the hilarious entertainment of the evening.

While a considerable part of the feminine contingent in the company was given over to considerable nudity during the evening opportunity was afforded to display a glittering array of gowns. It was a show that was well staged and much money seems to have been put into costuming. The choras contained a bevy of good looking girls. The production will show again this afternoon and evening and tomorrow afternoon and evening.

PAULINE FREDERICK Pauline Frederick is called upon to interpret the strongest emotions a woman may experience in her newest Goldwyn photoplay, "Bonds of Love" which will be presented at the Fuller Theater on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The unfathomable depths of mother love, and the pain of being wracked between self-sacrifice and revenge are some of the emotions which Miss Frederick is called upon to express during the unfolding of the powerful story which Louis Sherwin, the well-known dramatic critic, wrote especially for her. Mr. and Mrs. Carter De Haven in the new two reel comedy, "Close to Nature," will complete this program.

THE NEW STRAND A picture abounding with thrills and heart suspense is "Behind the Door" which will be shown at the New Strand last times today. Here TS ingredients are sure to promote speedy and comforting relief from inflammation, phlegm congestion, hoarseness, gritty cough, asthma, bronchitis, hoarseness. While Nature destroys the infectious germs, Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey heals and comforts. And what widespread, ever-increasing popularity it enjoys! Safe, antiseptic, parents give it to their children as freely as they themselves use it. It is non-narcotic and dangerous to neglect a cough or cold. Using Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey is showing good judgment. 30c, 60c, $1.20.

GRAND The Great American Play "In Old Kentucky" has been produced in pictures, with Anita Stewart Playing the Leading Role. So successful is this picture that it is everywhere breaking the box office records set by "Birth of a Nation." The picture comes to Madison for an indefinite run. 4 show daily. Seats will be reserved for Sunday matinees and for all evening shows.

THE NEW STRAND Sunday, Monday, Tuesday — Mary Miles Minter, "Anne of Green Gables." Prizma Colored Pictures. Wednesday, Thursday, Friday Saturday — Robert Warwick in "Adventure in Hearts." Mack Bennett Comedy.

Daily Weather Story. Highest temperature during the past 24 hours was 30 at 2 p. m., and the lowest was 27 at 9 a. m. Friday. Relative humidities were 87, 96, and 96. Precipitation was 0. Sun set will occur at 5:10 p. m. The storm in the east continues causing snow and high winds from New York northward. Snow flurries also continue in the lake regions. It is raining on the north Pacific slope and chinook winds are causing much warmer weather east of the Canadian Rockies.

TOO FAT?

is adapted from J. M. Montgomery's "Anne" stories. THE GRAND Katherine MacDonald, who is featured in "The Thunderbolt" now playing at the Grand, was pronounced by Christy, the famous artist, as the most beautiful woman on the screen. "She has a splendidly shaped head and beautiful features, her features are filled with character. Her eyes are wonderful as are her nose and mouth." "Miss MacDonald is beautiful in a most unusual way," continues the artist. "In no sense could she be classed as the 'doll' type of girl. She is aristocratic looking, yet she is able to do any character well, due to her understanding of human nature. One of the most valuable of her traits is the great fund of common sense which is honest and which prevents her from allowing herself to become conceited and thus ruin her beauty."

The most pretentious and artistic of all piano offerings, is the act to be presented at the Orpheum tomorrow afternoon and evening, by Will J. Ward and His Five Symphony Girls, under the billing title of "A Musical Melange." In the act presented by Mr. Ward you will have the pleasurable enjoyment of hearing and seeing five talented pianists render a program of diversified selections at one and the same time. Many Madison patrons of motion pictures have seen Martha Russell appearing as a leading woman with J. Warren Kerrigan and other well known artists, and later a screen star in her own right. They will now have a chance to see her in person, with her partner Harry Van Fossen, in a clever conception "Types of Women."

A rural comedy is "Mudtown Vaudeville" the act offered by Blanche and Jimmie Creighton. On this bill will appear York and Marks in the comedy farce, "That Ain't My Fault," and The Ovondas, Spanish Whirlwind Xylophonists.

L.J. Tucker of Madison Wins Two Main Events and Trophy At The State Curling Bonspiel

Madison Man Captures Honors at Portage Meet; Portage Man is Second

First place honors and the state trophy went to Madison in the state curling bonspiel at Portage, which closed last night, when Skip L. J. Tucker, 412 W. Mifflin street won two of the three main events staged yesterday afternoon.

Tucker won eleven games and lost one during the entire bonspiel, and ended a full game ahead of his nearest competitor, Joe Raup of Portage, who won ten games and lost two. Tucker was easily the star of the meet, playing in finals of two main events and winning each time.

The bonspiel closed last night with awards in the grand aggregate prize events. Portage was selected as the place of the next bonspiel. Yesterday's play and awards:

First event—Phillips, Wis., trophy and first prize to Skip Joe Raup of Portage; second prize to Skip James Learmouth of Portage; third prize to Skip M. W. Roberts of Portageville; fourth prize, to J. A. Thomas of Cambria.

Second event (Conkle trophy)—First to Skip L. J. Tucker of Madison; second prize to Skip P. W. McDermott of Portage; third prize to Skip John A. Thomas of Cambria; fourth prize to Skip Joe Raup of Portage.

Third event—Portage Curling club trophy and first prize to Skip L. J. Tucker of Madison; second prize to Skip Edward La Fleur of Portage; third prize to Skip Joe Raup of Portage; fourth prize to Skip James Learmouth of Portage.

Bobby McLean In Title Race With Mathieson Today

CHRISTIANA—Robert McLean, of Chicago, and Oscar Mathieson of this city, world's ice skating champion, meet today for the first event of their match for the professional championship of the world. Today's events are the 500 and 5,000 metre races, while on Sunday the two skaters will meet in the 1,500 and 10,000 metre races. If each wins two events the deciding race will occur on Sunday and will be over the 1,000 metre course. International rules for skating will be followed.

Tickets already sold have brought the receipts up to a total of 500,000 Kronen.

Madison Kipp Co. Opens Drive For Athletic Field

The employees of the Madison Kipp company have started a campaign to acquire a completely equipped athletic field. Through their shop organ, the Kipp Lubricator, they made a preliminary appeal to the officials of the company this week for their support in the project.

"We want a repetition of last year's championship baseball team," said one of the leading spirits in the movement. "We want this coming year's team to have the advantage of a field of its own where practices may be held without the necessity of borrowing another fellow's park. This would be a great aid to the manager of the Kipp team in securing strong players. And our plan is not to confine the field to baseball alone, but to equip it so that it could provide amusement and recreation for all who like the outdoor in summer."

The employees have got their eyes on a seven acre plot of land recently acquired by the Kipp company. This land is close to the shop, and convenient for all East-siders. While somewhat low in spots, it is being leveled, and will make an ideal field. An athletic director is to be chosen by the Kipp employees who will take charge of activities.

SKI JUMPING FURNISHES THRILLS AND A WONDERFUL VIEW OF WINTER SCENERY

Ralph Whithall winning the jumping contest at Saranac Lake.

LOCALS HAVE GOOD CHANCE TO RANK HIGH

Scores Have Been Mediocre; Men Must Beat 2718 to Take Lead

With a mark of only 2718 to beat, to place them in the lead at the state pin tourney, twelve Madison teams will take the alleys today. The men are set to bowl the best games of their lives, and the chances of Madison to place in the final standings are exceptionally bright.

The Moose No. 1451 will roll at 8 p. m. tonight and ten more local teams will come on in the 8:45 shift. They are the Park Alley Five, Lawrence Lunch No. 1, Capitol Alley Five, Wolf-Kubly-King Co., Badger State Shoes, Wingra Land, Kennedy Dairies, Gisholt Five, American Restaurant, and Rupp's Clothiers.

The Pan Dandy Breads will take the alleys at 10:15. The majority of the Madison bowlers left for Manitowoc on the 7:55 a. m. C. & N. W. train this morning. They arrived in Milwaukee at 11:30, stopped off for dinner, and continued on to Manitowoc on a train leaving at 1:30. Some of the Sunday bowlers departed at 1:00 p. m. this afternoon, while others will wait for the 5:35 train tonight.

All of the local bowlers are staying at the Williams House in Manitowoc.

The men were all wearing their buttons boasting Madison as the choice of the 1921 tourney. The buttons are white, bearing the words, "Madison—1921." These buttons will be distributed among all the bowlers at Manitowoc as a part of the boosting campaign. This campaign is being waged under the direction of Secretary Gauer of the Madison Bowling Association who has been in Manitowoc since Thursday. Every Madison man at the meet is boosting for Madison, and on Monday the official invitation committee, headed by Judge Rosenberry, will arrive to present their indorsements to the executive committee.

The schedule of bowling Sunday for the Madison, Stoughton and Sun Prairie teams is:

8:15	State Fair No. 1.
9:00	State Fair No. 2.
9:30	Madison Alley Five.
10:00	Madison Billiard Five.
10:30	Park Hotel.
11:00	Stoughton Badgers.
11:30	Kelly Kant Slips.
12:00	Testers Colts (Sun Prairie).
12:30	Lawrence Lunch No. 2.
1:00	Oil Kips.

Roundy At Manitowoc

"Roundy," the man who knows the funny side of bowling, and who has been presenting it to you through the medium of his "Corner," this winter, left for Manitowoc with the Madison bowlers this morning. Watch for his stuff! It's going to be red hot, and it's going to be a pretty accurate pen picture of events as they are happening at the state tourney. You all know Roundy. You know that everything of a humorous nature which befalls at Madison alleys finds its way into his "Corner." Roundy is going to write his first impressions of the tourney Monday. Don't miss it. It's going to be good!

Bryan Downey Trims Rostan In Milwaukee Ring; Delaney Beaten By Pinkie Mitchell

Navy Rostan Fails to Show Class in Battle With Columbus Scrapper

Pinkie Mitchell had no trouble in beating Cal Delaney of Cleveland in a St. Paul ring last night. He out-boxed and outfought him all the way. The bout was fierce, but clean. In the preliminaries, Sammy Terzin, St. Paul welter-weight defeated Jimmy Potts of Minneapolis. Cliff Kramer, St. Paul, stopped Dick Franklin, the Hibbing giant, in the ninth round. Franklin won twenty-nine of thirty-three fights by knockouts. Billy Perkins, Rhinelander, Wis., middleweight, and Jack Nichols, St. Paul, fought a draw.

Other fight decisions for last night's bouts were:

Bryan Downey outboxed Navy Rostan in ten rounds at Milwaukee.

Bryan Downey, Columbus scrapper, extraordinary, bounded into the ring at the Empress Theater, Milwaukee last night, looking like the queen of the chorus according to all observers, but despite the buxom curves which showed plainly he was in the best of condition, he outboxed Navy Rostan of Chicago. The Ohio boxer won easily, but it wasn't because of his merits as a pugilist. Rostan simply wasn't there. He failed to show any class and never had a chance save in the first round when he made a mistake and hit Downey in the chin, knocking him over. Downey chased him about the ring for the rest of the bout.

BALTIMORE—Ray Moore was given the referee's decision over Pal Moore in 12 rounds.

ST. LOUIS—Ray Long knocked out Tommy Rowan in the first round.

KALAMAZOO, Mich.—Harry Greb and Mike Lemair fought ten rounds to a draw.

Pinkie Mitchell outfought Cal Delaney in ten rounds at St. Paul.

Adopted Daughter of George Wylie is Dead

Friday's shooting in the team events in the 1920 state pin tourney here was featured by the Shoe Manufacturing league aggregation of Milwaukee. They came here eight squads strong and following their performance on the runways two changes were recorded in the standings.

The Weyenberg No. 2 team leaders of the day, broke into third position with a total of 2705 and fourth place was occupied by the Weinbrenner No. 1 quintet which registered 2688. None of the other teams on Friday's schedule could accomplish anything better.

Two Madison teams rolling at the state tournament yesterday, failed to accomplish anything wonderful. Eagles No. 23 rolled up a 2371 game, while the Madison Seed Co. team failed to get above 1,820.

Tobacco Market In Wisconsin

EDGERTON, WIS., Feb. 6, 1920.—The week has developed nothing of interest. The first days of the week held out promises of a thaw, but it proved to be just like the other promises earlier in the month, just when the breaking point was near, it broke in the wrong direction with northwest breezes pulling down another boreal shiver. A little tobacco has been brought in from outside points, just enough to keep the assorting crews going, though only few warehouses are running, with full crews. The prospects for summer assorting are again looming up, bringing no thrill of joy to any body concerned. The labor situation in Wisconsin as far as the warehouse end of it is concerned, is satisfactory. There is plenty of work for every one who wants the work, but no threatening scarcity.

The outlook for farm labor to carry on the work of the coming season is about the same as last year, with a tendency to stiffening prices, though no real apprehension is felt in the ability of the tobacco sections to take care of the usual acreage of tobacco. Any eight-hour day for farm workers is out of the question, and any agitation in favor of such a plan is simply throwing hindrances in the way of production of the fruits of the soil so sorely needed to feed and clothe the nation. An eight hour workday on the farm during the producing season would soon put the consumers on a one meal day ration at three meal prices.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24, 1920—Says the U. S. Tobacco Journal: So far as actual sales are concerned, Water street has not been more than ordinarily busy during the past week. The market has been visited in the course of the week by numerous manufacturers from out of town, seeking for the most part to supplement their stocks of various types of tobacco, many of them continuing their journey to Hartford, Conn. Transactions were not numerous because of the fact that stocks of all kinds are rather unprofitable. Inquiry continues brisk, however, and there appears no reason to doubt that there is sufficient demand for tobacco to assure the merchants of continued activity. The manufacturers have started off the new year, as a usual thing, with fairly well filled order files, and there seems to be a shortage of cigar stocks throughout the country. Barring difficulties that might possibly come from sources outside the industry itself, this state of affairs would indicate a very active year ahead of the cigar trade. The continued increase in the prices of cigars naturally has, and may in a few months affect the situation. At present, however, there appears to be no difficulty in the way of the manufacturer who wants to raise prices.

on Friday, H. Kletmer and G. Wilke scored 1,110 and W. Bergner and M. Kummer rolled 1,104. Both duos hall from Sheboygan.

"There were no upsets or changes in the singles on Friday. W. Bergner led the list with a total of 598. He is a Sheboyganite."

RUPTURED—Try this free—New invention sent on 30 days' trial without expense to you. Simply send me your name and I will send you my new copyrighted rupture book and measurement blanks. When you return the blank I will send you my new invention for rupture. When it arrives put it on and wear it. Put it to every test you can think of. The harder the test the better you will like it. You will wonder how you ever got along with the old style cruel spring truss or belts with leg straps of torture. Your own good, common sense and your own doctor will tell you it is the only way in which you can ever expect a cure. After wearing it 30 days, if it is not entirely satisfactory in every way—if it is not easy and comfortable—if it does not actually see your rupture getting better, and if not convinced that a cure is merely a question of time, just return it and you are out nothing. Any rupture appliance sent on 30 days' trial without expense to you is worth a trial. Tell your ruptured friends of this. Bushyhold Co., 2251 Lech Bldg., Kansas City, Mo.

NO ONE WAITING AT THE GATE

THE following is from Labor, official organ of the Plumb plan league:

"Captains of great American industries who in the pre-war days made fabulous fortunes by plowing cheap foreign labor into profits, are much concerned over the present 'shortage of labor' and the desire of thousands of aliens to return to their native lands. For them it is a cruel state of affairs when there are not two men for every job.

"General T. Coleman du Pont of war powder profit fame, has issued a public statement lamenting 'the increasingly serious industrial situation caused by emigration of foreign born laborers and steadily dwindling immigration to replenish the labor supply.'

"He says America is short already 4,000,000 laborers, counting more than 1,000,000 who have emigrated since the armistice was signed, with 1,000,000 more preparing to leave as soon as transportation facilities are improved.

"Inhuman treatment of ignorant foreigners by the United States Steel Corporation, the Packing House Trust, the Coal Trust, the Woolen Trust, the Cotton Mill Trust and other anti-American labor corporations and industries, has caused thousands of these imported workers to agitate against the government, and has instilled a desire among millions to return home. They have been prevented from becoming Americanized by the feudal conditions under which they are forced to work.

"General du Pont seems to have realized that something is wrong, for he says: 'In view of the situation the whole country should be made aware of the necessity of adopting a more liberal policy, which while barring undesirable, will yet allow a free inflow of workers.' It would be more to the point if this warning was directed to the corporations at fault rather than to the whole country.

"Immigration authorities have estimated that only 300,000 immigrant workers may be expected to arrive in the United States this year, and many times this number will probably depart. Independence has been granted to the nations of Europe from which American labor exploiters drafted most of the cheap labor, and this country now offers fewer attractions than before the war. Besides, these men and their families want to return and participate in the rehabilitation of the land of their fathers.

"Never again during this generation will great crowds of hungry men and women flock to the outer gates of the big industrial plants of America begging for work on any terms the employers may dictate."

ANOTHER STORY

WOULD the American people be willing to give away the states of Minnesota and Wisconsin! Hardly! Yet propaganda originating in Wall street urges us to cancel our war loans to Europe, which about equals the combined property values of these two states. Nine and a half billion dollars is an enormous sum and when all has been said most of the people of America are poor people. Why can't these countries shake down their war profiteers and pay us?

THE PROFITS TAXES

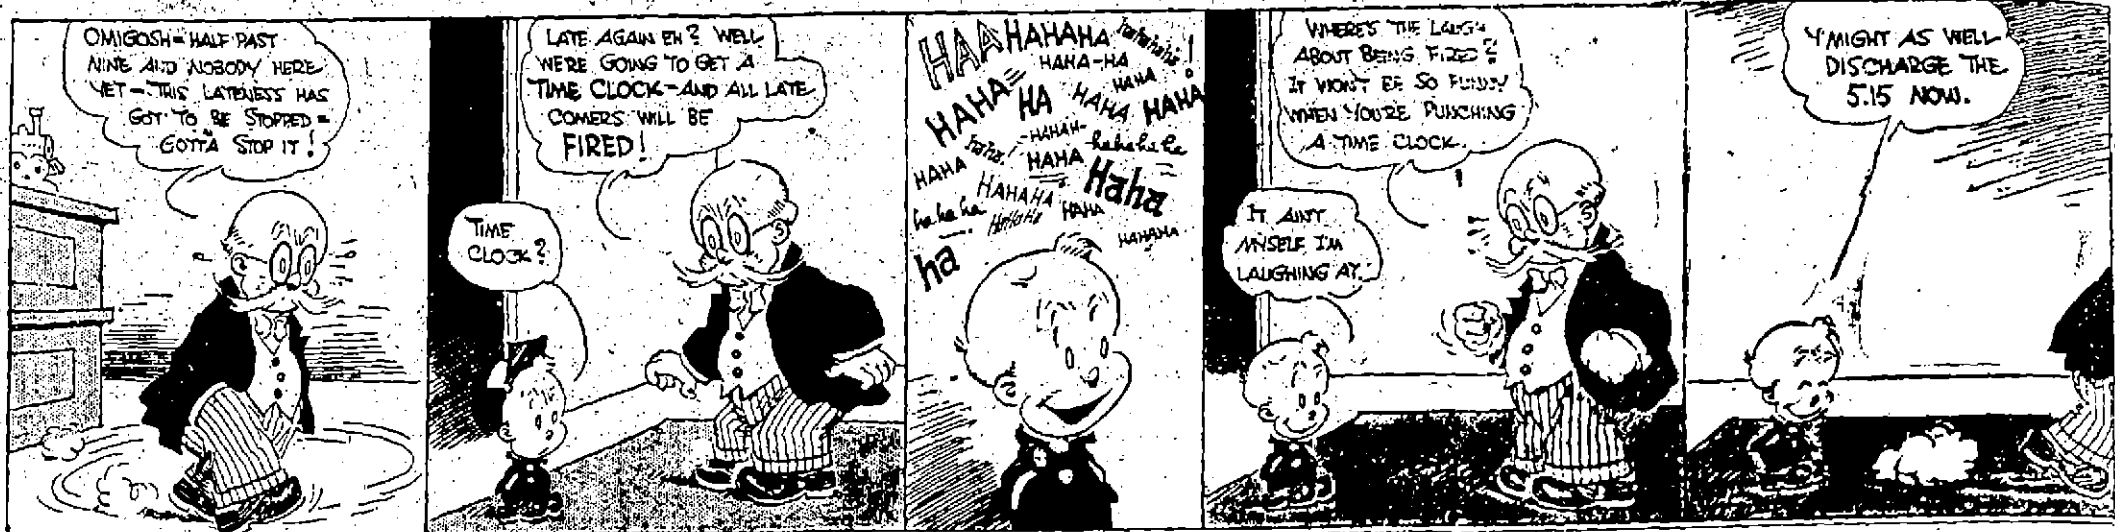

ALL THE controlled city press and magazines are now fighting the excess profits taxes, declaring that they are simply passed on to the consumer. The big corporations did make far more after paying these taxes during the war than they did before. But the little joker which the press fails to bring out is that these corporations would have put their war prices just as high if there had been no excess profits at all. If the fat boys had not lost there would be no yelp in this class of press.

JONAH OF MILLERAND'S SHIP OF STATE

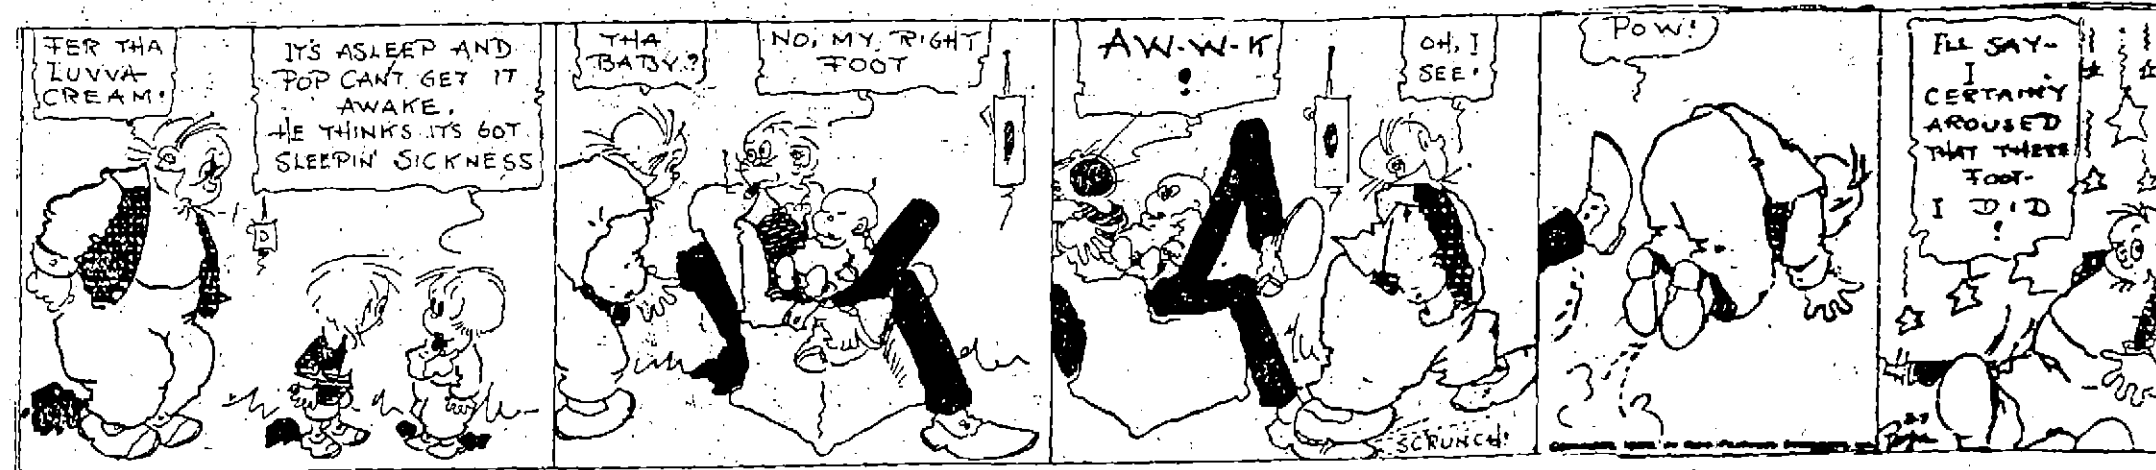

The Jonah of Premier Millerand's ship of state is Jules Steeg, minister of the interior. He was friendly with Cullinan and Malvy, enemies of the republic. Following his recent appointment he was bitterly denounced on the floor of the chamber of deputies. Millerand asked for a vote of confidence. He got it, but to show their disapproval of the appointment 300 deputies, more than half the total attendance, declined to vote at all.

40,000 Farmers' Letters Show Need of New Deal For Farmers

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER

Reports From All Sections Indicate Necessity of Leaving Farm or Cutting Production; Watson's Red Investigation Moved to Packer Territory; Stone Mentioned as Labor Candidate

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Over 40,000 answers sent in by farmers to a questionnaire sent out by the administration early in December indicate widespread unrest on the farm. Replies are still coming in at the rate of 1,000 a day.

From every section of the country farmers report inability to meet conditions, that is, to make a good living out of the margin between market returns and the cost of farm supplies, including hired labor. Some report as planning to quit farming; more as having to decrease production to keep from going broke.

While many politicians affect "surprise" that our farmers are not living on milk and honey, considering how they have distributed free seeds, repealed the daylight saving law and accomplished other similarly great things for the farmers in the last three years, the conditions reported have been apparent to any one who studies production conditions, for a long time.

Farmers have been prevented from receiving full competitive prices in several lines by war restrictions and have been faced by organized raids like that of last fall. At the same time the great industries supplying the farmer with clothes, machinery and other supplies have had a free hand. Obviously the farmer has been badly squeezed by these two hostile forces.

BIGGER PRODUCTION PLEAS

The politicians will endeavor to smooth over the unrest on the farms by an appeal for greater production as a patriotic duty. E. T. Meredith, the new secretary of agriculture, has already launched such a fearful appeal, and it will be repeated over and over by every controlled paper in the country until after the next election. In effect the farmers are being asked to send good money after bad. They have been "cleared" in the last year so they are asked now to put up all the capital they can beg or borrow, not with a reasonable hope of profit but from patriotic duty.

Decreased production, curtailing capital and labor expenses, is the only way the farmer can stay on the farm during an adverse period, and he will be far more patriotic if he thus protects himself until such time as the politicians are willing to reorganize our marketing and draw the teeth of the trusts. A decrease of 12,000,000 acres in winter wheat planting has already been registered.

HOUSTON ASKED FOR ACCOUNTING

The house committee on expenditures in the department of agriculture has requested Secretary Houston to come before it, at its convenience, and to send the heads of the several bureaus to testify before it, on the uses to which the funds of the department have been put during the past year.

This request, legally and properly made by Chairman Baer, has evidently caused great surprise both in the office of Secretary Houston and in that of the director of the grain corporation, Mr. Barnes. Mr. Houston has notified Mr. Barnes that he can learn all he wants to know by reading the testimony of the representatives of the department before the house committee on agriculture.

Mr. Barnes has asked that any questions be submitted to him in writing at New York, where he has the necessary data to make answer. In other words, Mr. Houston and Mr. Barnes assume to choose which ones of the committee of congress are entitled to their notice.

Mr. Baer will submit this issue to the committee, with the suggestion that Mr. Houston be invited to come in person and answer all questions as to his own stewardship.

KENYON BILL ATTACKED

Senator Gronna and Senator Norris have won the first skirmish in their battle in the senate committee on agriculture to keep at least one or two teeth in the meat packer legislation. For four days they debated the new Kenyon-Kendrick bill, which would take away from the federal trade commission the control of the livestock and meat packing business. They now believe that they will be able to strike this feature from the bill.

WATSON'S PACKER PLANS

Senator Watson of Indiana, chairman of the senate subcommittee appointed to investigate the radical tendencies of the men employed by the federal trade commission in its investigation of the meat packers, has decided to start his campaign against the commission in Chicago, rather than in the national capital. The newspapers in Chicago will give him more headlines and more sensational notice when he defends the Armour, Swifts, Morris, Cudahys and their friends, and assails Commissioners Colver and Murdock and the commission's experts.

As nearly as can be learned in advance, the packers' detective and legal staff, headed by Levvy Mayer, will have charge of the preparation of the material upon which the subcommittee will proceed to be "astonished" and "astounded" and otherwise horrified. Indeed, the packers are said to have for two years been following up every possible bit of evidence of radical economic or political beliefs by even the temporary stenographers and messengers of the commission in its temporary Chicago offices, in order to bring on this sensational stageplay to discredit the public officials who have dared to challenge their violations of federal law. Now that Attorney General Palmer has publicly declared that he will not prosecute the big packers, they are ready to use Watson and his subcommittee to try to destroy the commission and its staff.

Senator La Follette is the only liberal member of the subcommittee.

INDEPENDENT POLITICAL NOTES

Warren S. Stone, grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, is the latest of the candidates mentioned for a third ticket in the 1920 presidential race. Others who have been mentioned are Glenn E. Plumb, author of the Plumb plan of democratic control of the railroads and other basic industries; Gifford Pinchot, once chief forester under the Roosevelt administration; Frank P. Walsh, former chairman of the national war board and Irish-American delegate to the Paris peace conference; and Governor Lynn J.

Voice of the People

FROM RICHLAND COUNTY

To the Editor of the Capital Times: In behalf of the Equity membership of this county, I wish to congratulate you on the stand that you have taken with regard to the relationship of the Farmers' Equity and the A. C. A., and the issues of your paper that have greatly enlightened the people in this matter.

Your membership in this county will increase rather than decrease and we are glad for the benefit of the common people that such valuable information may be made so public.

ED. JOSEPH, Vice Pres. of Co. Union, A. S. of E., Richland County, Richland Center, Wis.

"O LORD! HOW THIS WORLD IS GIVEN TO LYING!"

To the Editor of the Capital Times: That was the condition in Shakespeare's day. With improved facilities, lying has increased a million-fold.

A writer for the daily paper wishes to get off something to surprise the public—to bolster up some theory, or to aid some ism, and what he does not know he guesses at! But true or false, his statements are accepted as facts, "because we read it in the paper."

He is so anxious to tell something right off, before some one else writes it, that he never stops to investigate lest he should miss a "scop."

My own faith in anything I see in print is badly shaken. Printed lies seem to be immortal! Corrected even ten times ten-thousand times, they scarcely bob up again in unexpected places!

Since the death of our sister, Mrs. Wilcox, the Wheelers of her family have been reading so many erroneous "facts" about her life, that we feel at times like strangers to the girl Ella Wheeler, as they describe her.

Nearly all writers in America still say, "Born in 1855," though her birth was actually Nov. 5, 1850, and in village of Johnston (nearly all have it in Johnston "Center," the Center is another place).

London writers are not different. Some of my friends have sent me clippings and whole papers concerning our sister's life and character. They show the deep regard felt for her, and yet they are each and every one erroneous when it comes to facts concerning her early life.

It is unpleasant, but I must protest against some statements which appeared in "The Church Family Newspaper, London, England." (I have written to them on the subject.) Nov. 7, 1919, Mrs. Ashley Carus Wilson writes: "Ella Wheeler was born in 1855 (error No. 1) on a wide prairie between Lake Superior and Lake Michigan. She claimed Pocahontas as an ancestor. At the age of seven she was receiving cheques for poems, that were presently the chief financial support of the family." Wisconsin University educated her, and at the age of twenty-nine she married a New York journalist.

Not one statement true! (except that she was born, and that Johnston is on a prairie, but 300 miles from Lake Superior!) This is error No. 2.

She never claimed more than a legendary rumor concerning Pocahontas (see her memoirs). That is error No. 3.

"At the age of seven" she was learning to spell, and to write, instead of printing her baby stories on wall paper. Foolish error No. 4.

Her cheques were NEVER "the principal financial support of the family!" The crops, and stock, milk and poultry on 160 acres of land were always her support up to 1873 (when I married and made a home on my own farm).

Her first cheque purchased a dress to wear at a wedding. (See The Worlds and I). (As I wrote for New York Mercury at the same time she did, I know it was later than 1868). When her literary work paid her more, she did more for the common budget. But up to 1880 the cows father milked, and the crops I raised on their farm, were the principal support of the family (Ella included). That disposes of error No. 5.

Wisconsin University did not "educate her." But joint District No. 1 (Editor's Note—Mr. Wheeler neglected to put in the number of the school here) now named The Ella Wheeler Wilcox School, was where she "attended school." So much for error No. 6.

She was married at the age of thirty-three years, six months (lacking 4 days) and not "at the age of twenty-nine." (That disposes of error No. 7). She did not marry a "New York journalist." That eighth error and most of the others, could have been avoided, had the writer confined herself to what she knew. Or, had she read "The Worlds and I," instead of guessing.

Now the foregoing "text" brings me to the crucial question. How much of what any editor, or any correspondent writes is based upon knowledge of the subject treated? "Reams of paper! Floods of ink! Wasted by men who 'think' they 'think' when they recklessly throw red rags in the face of mad bulls. They should be sure that good, and not evil, is to be the result when they get the bulls excited. Possibly some of our 'facts' are as baseless as those of Mr. Carus Wilson. Who knows?

We read what somebody writes, and swallow it, if it will help our side of politics. Prophecies of danger from some legislation proposed, are arguments of the brain usually. The Constitution guarantees the "Right to bear arms." Who wants to tote a gun except a gunman? Who worries about "Freedom" more than one whose habits are liable to land him in jail? Whatever we do, let us not stir up a slandy over theories, or abuse the public's confidence by writing "by guess."

M. P. WHEELER.

WHY ULSTER OPPOSES IRISH INDEPENDENCE

To the Editor of the Capital Times: To many Americans who have been acquainted with the claims of one side of the Irish controversy since "President" de Valera and other "Irish 'republicans'" began their propaganda campaign in the United States, it has never been clear just why the Unionist province of Ulster could not join forces with the southern Sinn Fein movement. This would unite the whole Irish nation in a demand for complete independence from Great Britain, a demand which under such circumstances England probably could not and, most likely, would not seek to deny.

By the Sinn Fein agitators in America, the Ulstermen have been represented as a stiff-necked, obstinate band of Tories with whom no other political or other group ever could agree. But these agitators have not presented the case fairly. Stiff-necked and obstinate Ulster may be, but to any American who has inquired into Ulster's viewpoint there appears abundant reason for the exercise of that obstinacy against the would-be autocracy of Sinn Fein.

The following communication to the editor of the London "Spectator" of January 10th, 1920, sets graphically one of these many reasons:

"I see that in some of the English papers, surprise is expressed that the leaders of the Sinn Fein party have not denounced the recent murders of policemen in Ireland. Why should they? At a district court-martial held at Cork on December 20th, a copy of the official organ of the Irish Volunteers was produced which contained the following words:

"Every Volunteer is entitled, morally and legally, when in the execution of his military duties, to use all legitimate methods of warfare against the soldiers and policemen of the English usurper, and to slay them, if it is necessary to do so in order to overcome their resistance. He is not only entitled, but bound, to resist all attempts to disarm him in this position he has the authority of the nation behind him now constituted in a concrete form."

But this, after all, is only carrying out the policy enunciated by the Nationalists (Sinn Feiners) all along. The late Mr. Patrick Ford wrote in the Irish World in 1893:

"The men who struck down Burke and Cavendish (murdered in Phoenix Park several years ago—where the attack was made by Sinn Feiners a few weeks ago on the life of former Field-Marshal French, the present Irish Viceroy) were not ruffians. They were soldiers of Ireland, fighting Ireland's battle. The man who set foot on Irish soil to administer or enforce any other law than the law and will of the Irish nation must be prepared to abide the consequences."

Ulster Unionist Council, (London Office.) 25 Victoria St., London.

It may be said that this was only the opinion of one man; but Mr. Delvin (present day Irish Nationalist leader) has eulogized Mr. Ford for "the brilliancy in his exposition of the principles inculcated in our programme."

He was therefore voicing the opinions of the Nationalist party. And these are the men who will form the overwhelming majority in the Dublin Parliament to whose tender mercies 400,000 Unionists will be handed over."

Ulster is stiff-necked in her refusal to join with Sinn Fein, which has perpetrated or condoned scores of atrocities, in a demand for complete separation from English rule. It would be suicidal for her to do so—even if she had no scruples over the national immorality of such an alliance—an alliance with a political faction which uses highway robbery, murder and mob rule as its main instruments in setting about the institution of an autonomous government.

Sinn Fein is pleading President Wilson's principle of "self-determination" for small nations as a reason for Ireland being given full self-government. But only Sinn Fein Ireland desires such complete separation from English protective administration. Sinn Fein leaders have declared repeatedly that they will accept nothing short of full separation. Thus the justice of Sinn Fein's appeal to "self-determination" supporters vanishes—for Sinn Fein demands to-day a right which she does not hesitate to say she intends using tomorrow to coerce Ulster into submission to her rule.

These are points of evidence for "the other side" of the Irish case—the side Sinn Fein spokesmen in the United States have refrained from mentioning except when they deemed it expedient to heap abuse on Ulster for her "stiff-necked" policy of "obstinacy."
